Woking

This County is bounded on the North side by the River Thames, which divides it from Middlesex: and is called Surrey from its Situation on the South side of that River.
 Near the South West corner of the County rises the River Wey, which after receiving several small Rivulets falls into the Thames by a double Channel near Weybridge. The River Mole rises in the South part of the County & near Dorking runs under Boxhill about 2 Miles, then becomes visible again, and falls into the Thames near East Moulsey. The River Tandel springs near Cashedon, & disemboques itself at Wandsworth.

This is a detailed historical map of North Wales and its surrounding regions. The map shows the coastline of Wales with numerous towns and castles marked. Key locations include Holyhead, Anglesey, Caernarvon, Denbigh, Flint, and Chester. The map also shows the English counties of Lancashire and Cheshire. A scale bar at the bottom indicates distances in English miles (5, 10, 15, 20).
